

These courses are for international students who do not meet the University's entry criteria for direct entry to our Bachelors degree courses in the following areas: business; law; politics and international relations; property; psychology; social and historical studies; tourism; and translation. Delivered in partnership with Kaplan International College London (KIC London), the Foundation is designed to prepare you for undergraduate study. Progression to Westminster is guaranteed if you complete your KIC London course and achieve the required grades.

Course content

The Foundation covers a range of skills that allow you to study your Bachelors degree of choice with confidence. These include note taking, presentation skills, avoiding plagiarism, time management skills, essay writing and much more. English language tuition is also available at a wide range of levels for students who need it.

Subjects of study on the Foundation in Business, Law and Social Science include: Applied Maths • Business and the Business Environment • Business Enterprise • Economics in an International Context • Foundation Maths • Introduction to Legal Principles and Systems • Introduction to Social Science • Statistics for Social Science • The Individual, State and Society

Length of course

Between seven and 11 months depending on English level at point of entry. Start dates are available in January, May and September.

Application

Apply directly to KIC London, kiclondon.org.uk/howtoapply

Location

Central London

Typical offer for September 2011

In general, entry to the Foundation Certificate requires you to have passed Grade 12 (or equivalent). You will also need to show proof of English language ability, usually an IELTS test (or equivalent).

A higher IELTS score means your course will be shorter and you can progress to your Bachelors degree more quickly. For specific entry requirements and general information, contact KIC London.
