

Meet us

A photograph of three people in an office. A woman with long dark hair, wearing a light blue striped short-sleeved shirt and a dark skirt, is sitting in a brown office chair at a desk. She is smiling at the camera. Behind her stands a woman with long brown hair, wearing a green button-down shirt. To the right, a man in a dark pinstriped suit and purple tie stands holding a brochure. The office has a brick wall, a window with a view of greenery, and a desk with a computer monitor and papers.

We believe the best way to find out about our courses and what Sussex and Brighton really have to offer is by meeting us in person. That's why our International Liaison Officers travel to around 30 countries each year to visit exhibitions, agent offices, schools and universities. Back at Sussex, our Events Coordinators are here to help you with information or arrange a visit to our campus if you have the chance to come to the UK.

We think it's important we get to know you before you apply to Sussex. We want to hear about your academic interests, your ambitions and your plans to study abroad. So wherever you live now, we look forward to meeting you and helping you on your journey.

International Liaison Team

From left to right: Katie Floyd, Amanda Barton,
John Sander, Victoria Shaw, Terry O'Donnell, Dr Philip Baker
Inset: Beverley Traylen, Katherine Jarvis