Admissions Decisions

When you receive your offer of admission, you may have one or more of the following decisions:

Final Acceptance

We have reviewed your application and are pleased to offer you admission.

Conditional Acceptance

You qualify for admission, however; one or more of the prerequisites (such as final grades, proof of OSSD or other specified document) has not yet been met. Your offer of admission will specify what is required.

Wait List

We are unable to offer admission at this time even though you qualify for admission. The number of qualified applicants exceeded the number of spaces available in the program, and the program is currently full. Should a vacancy occur before classes start we will contact you. Your name will remain on the wait list even if you accept another offer. You can view your status on the wait list through Student 411.

Not Accepted

You did not qualify for admission. You may be offered admission to an alternative program (such as College Exploration, Pre-Health, Pre-Trades, Dental Assisting, etc.) even though you may not have listed it as one of the choices on your application.

Dates and details in this process may not apply to international applicants. Please contact Cambrian International for further information.
